ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

Asia Pacific Academy of Materials (APAM), in close cooperation with concerned international & regional bodies, and with governmental agencies and private institutions, seek to increase awareness and expertise in scientific and technical knowledge for sustainable development and use of materials. APAM held several conferences and seminars in various countries and regions in last 32 years.

The Congress of Asia Pacific Academy of Materials 2024 is scheduled to be held on November 16-19, 2024 in Shenzhen, China. We hope that the events of the Congress will contribute to the professional advancement of the participants.
